

CREATE CLIMATE JUSTICE NET COMMUNITY CULTURE AGREEMENT

Last updated: May 22, 2018

PURPOSE

Create Climate Justice Net (CCJnet) supports climate justice activists who are Unitarian Universalists and honored collaborating communities, to better connect, learn, share information, meet and organize for climate justice action.

GUIDELINES for use of CreateClimateJustice.net

- Clear connection to Unitarian Universalist collaboration for climate action and justice must be explicit. These can be learning circles, worship circles, committees, networks, etc.
- Communications and organizing on CCJnet must be grounded in the
 - Principles and Sources of Unitarian Universalism,
 - Jemez Principles for Democratic Organizing,
 - First National People of Color Environmental Leadership Summit Principles of Environmental Justice, and
 - Second National Environmental Justice Leadership Summit Principles of Working Together
- Follow the User Security Best Practices and the Terms of Service & User Agreement

HOW WE TREAT ONE ANOTHER in group or subgroup conversations

- Together we use this site to non-violently advance climate justice. We extend mutual respect and care in communication.
- We are responsible and accountable to each other.
- Site administrators and moderators reserve the right to edit & delete posts that does not serve the purpose of this site or follow the guidelines for use.

SUSTAINABILITY

This site is free and designed to serve the greater vision of climate justice. It exists through your participation and your generosity. Please contribute here as you are able and consider being a sustaining monthly donor. Donors giving $10 per month or more will have a Sustainer heart icon displayed on their CCJnet profile.

This community culture agreement was established by a council of the CCJnet sponsoring organizations (UU Ministry for Earth & Unitarian Universalist Association's Green Sanctuary Program and United Nations Office). Community review and input for potential revision of the community culture agreement will be undertaken within the first year of CCJnet operation.
